Prof. dr hab. W. Lasoń
Director of the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences
ul. Smetna 12
31-343 Krakow

I present to your acceptance the commission for the admission of candidates from abroad who apply for the Workshop: Cognitive affective biases – from mechanisms to disease symptoms, (13-17 May 2019, Krakow, Poland) as part of the PROM program by the Polish National Agency for Academic Exchange.

According to the internal regulation of the PROM Project, the commission should consist of: 1 organizer from the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences, 3 independent employees from the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences and 1 expert from abroad indicated by the organizer of the event.

Proposed members of the commission:

Dr hab. Rafał Rygula – organizer of the Workshop: Cognitive affective biases – from mechanisms to disease symptoms, (13-17 May 2019, Krakow, Poland)
Dr hab. Katarzyna Starowicz-Bubak, independent employee from the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences.
Dr hab. Agnieszka Wąsik, independent employee from the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences.
Prof. dr hab. Agnieszka Basta Kaim, independent employee from the Institute of Pharmacology Polish Academy of Sciences.
Prof. Carmen Agustin Pavon, expert from abroad. Department of Cell and Functional Biology, University of Valencia, Spain.

Dr hab. Rafał Rygula
Affective Cognitive Neuroscience Lab
Department of Pharmacology
Institute of Pharmacology, Polish Academy of Sciences
12 Smetna Street, 31-343 Krakow, Poland
rygula@gmail.com
Organizer of the Workshop: Cognitive affective biases – from mechanisms to disease symptoms.